How to Register

SPL’s event calendar makes it easy to find and sign up for programs. Just follow the steps below:

1. Click on Events on the SPL homepage.
2. Find a program using the calendar view, the search box, or the drop-down menus at the top of the calendar.
3. Programs with a person icon and + sign require registration. In the example to the right, Paint Night at the Library requires registration, while the other two programs are drop-in.
4. Once you find the program you’re looking for, click on it. This brings up a box with basic information. To register for the program, click VIEW MORE.
5. You will be taken to a page where you can enter your information. Once finished, click Submit.
6. After your program registration is completed, a message will be displayed telling you that your registration was successful.

If you have any questions, please email askus@saskatoonlibrary.ca.
All of our programs are free.

That’s a fact, not fiction!

saskatoonlibrary.ca/events

All programs are drop-in unless indicated that registration is required.

Notes to Parents & Caregivers

Parents and caregivers of kids under 10 are required to remain in the library. Children under 6 must be accompanied by an adult during programs.
Rusty Macdonald Branch is getting a makeover!

A video game room, new children’s area, innovation lab and quiet reading spaces are just some of the features that will be included in a renovated Rusty Macdonald Branch.

The branch is currently undergoing its first major renovation since it opened 30 years ago. During construction, we will have limited library services available in the auditorium at the Lawson Civic Centre. You will be able to return borrowed materials, pick up holds and browse/borrow Hot Titles (new materials).

Hours during renovations (Apr 15 – Sep 3)

Monday to Saturday / 10am–6pm
Closed Apr 19, 22, May 20, Jul 1, Aug 5 & Sep 2

J.S. Wood Branch
Thursdays / May 2 – Aug 29 / 7 – 7:30pm
Program room and washrooms are not wheelchair accessible.
Visit your library starting late May & anytime throughout the summer to sign up. It is free.

How to participate
There are two ways to join in the fun. You can count the number of books you read each day or count the number of days you read at least 15 minutes. When you sign up you will get a notebook and stickers to track your reading.

How to win
Keep track of the books or days that you read, then come back to the library to enter into the contest. For every five books or five days you read, you will be entered to win a prize at the end of the summer. You will also get a small prize for every five books or five days you read (up to a maximum of four prizes). For a chance to win the early bird prize of a family swim pass, enter before Jul 15.

Meditations on the Prairies
John Penner

As world populations are increasingly becoming urbanized, knowledge and physical awareness of the land is diminishing. This exhibition is an exploration of and meditation on Canadian prairie landscapes presented in a historic salt-print process, evocative of disappearing times.

Reception: Thursday / Aug 15 / 7-9 pm
Shelter Belt Trees (detail), framed salt print, 18” x 22’’

Jul 10 – Aug 9

Best Laid Plan
Jordan Schwab

This exhibition explores the creative aesthetic of blueprints and building plans. Plans are how we work out problems and experiment with good and bad ideas. By experimenting with the format, we can recognize new forms of unrealized potential.

Reception: Wednesday / Jul 10 / 7– 9 pm
My Neighbor Billy (detail), mixed media, 22” x 17”, 2018

What if I need more time?

Eligible items can be renewed:

- in person
- by phone at 1.855.980.7457 or by phoning any location
- online through My SPL at saskatoonlibrary.ca

A few important points about renewals:

- if an item has been requested by someone else, it cannot be renewed
- overdue items can still be renewed and this will stop further late charges
- items cannot be renewed if you have more than $10 owing in late charges
- to renew a film for public and educational screenings, call 306.975.7580

Where do I return material?

You can return material to any public library in Saskatchewan.

Films for public and educational screenings must be returned to Fine Arts at Frances Morrison Central Library.

What if my public library doesn’t have the material I want, but another one does?

You can request most materials to be delivered to your preferred public library location using the province-wide online catalogue.

Please remember to check your due dates carefully as loan periods vary on different items.
Library Bookshop
You won’t leave empty-handed.

The Friends’ Shop is where withdrawn library materials find a second home. Proceeds are donated to SPL to support library programs and other initiatives.

Friends of the Saskatoon Public Library is a volunteer-run, non-profit organization dedicated to advocating for the library and fundraising for non-budgetary items. The shop operates through the hard work of nearly 50 volunteers.

For more information, and to volunteer, call or check out our website.
